

Fluxwerx appoints Jana Owens as RSM for the Central US Region

January 31, 2017 - Vancouver, BC - Fluxwerx is pleased to announce the appointment of Jana Owens as its new Regional Sales Manager in the Central US region including the states of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North/South Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas and Wisconsin.

A graduate of Kansas State University, Jana has served as electrical engineer and architectural lighting designer at Henderson Engineers, Inc. since 2008. In her position, Jana has managed lighting and electrical design plus power distribution projects for large scale commercial, retail, and educational establishments, and collaborated on the development of various internal standards including occupancy sensor specification, lighting control specification, and light fixture schedule specification standards. A recipient of numerous lighting awards including IES Illumination Awards for Lighting Design (2013 + 2014), Jana has dedicated her time to serving on IES committees and currently acts as the chair of Kansas City Illuminating Engineering Society Illumination Awards.

"As we continue to experience exponential growth in the Central US region, we recognized the need to expand our sales team. Jana's background in the lighting design field gives her the expertise and skill set required to communicate effectively with our premier agency sales teams and sophisticated architectural and lighting specifiers," said Lance Howitt, VP of Sales + Marketing. "Speaking their language and understanding their needs is paramount in her role as a Regional Sales Manager at Fluxwerx. She will be a tremendous asset to our customers on multiple levels. We are proud to have her as part of the Fluxwerx family."

Jana's role at Fluxwerx will be to drive specification sales efforts, product training and agency relationships as the company continues its rapid business and product portfolio growth in North America.

Jana will be based in Kansas City for ease of access to the metropolitan markets throughout her sales territory. "After being a designer for over eight years, I am excited to join Fluxwerx and work with our network of top notch agents and clientele in a new capacity," notes Jana. "I am looking forward to being a member of a team that has such strong market momentum and history of innovation and excellence."
